Thanking Brad Hudson

George Collins replied to Brad and thanked him for his five years as SPCOBA President. In summary, George mentioned Brad was all about service and stewardship and fronting up for the old boys community. During his time, he improved communication through technology, developed his broadcasting skills and used that to our advantage and fronted all of our video's and social media posts. Finally, all old boys joined in to thank Brad for his guidance and leadership especially during COVID.

Presentation of Accounts – Treasurer Sean Mahony

In summary, Sean gave a presentation which outlined the funding of the old boys association and what is the old boy's income, how we spend the money and the challenges for the future. He outlined the commitment to the colleges for the future and the risks to the Association such as maintaining the current funding and the college's collecting the subscriptions for the Old Boys Association.
